We Do! By Filmmaker Rebecca Rice

On Sunday, June 26, we celebrate PRIDE with the screening of Rebecca Rice's award-winning documentary "We Do." The film examines what it means for LGBTQ couples to have full marriage rights and why it matters through the stories of three LGBTQ couples. Rebecca says, "I wanted to preserve some of the stories of couples who worked so hard to find a way to legalize their unions in the period of time between Civil Unions and the Supreme Court ruling of June 26, 2015, that made marriage equality the law of the land. I firmly believe that, in just a few years, our unions and our families will be commonly accepted by most Americans. People will look back, as they do with interracial marriage, and assume that marriage rights have always been enjoyed by everyone. I believe it is important that we do not forget what couples went through prior to the Supreme Court ruling."

Come as you are – we'll be watching for you! We welcome you on Sunday morning at 10:30. Come a bit before and we can Chat prior to the service... See you then!
